1. On 25 August 1950, the Genoa Communist Federation issued a directive to the Genoa Federazione Giovanile Comunista Italiana (FGCI; Italian Communist Youth Federation), pointing out the labor problems existing in the province and calling upon the FGCI to play a leading part in the agitations and strikes which will allegedly be called by the Federazione Impiegati Operai Metallurgici (FIOM; Federation of Metallurgical Workers).
2. In issuing this directive to the FGCI, Severino Bianchini, member of the Secretariat of the Genoa Communist Federation, stated that all Communist youth, whether employed in industry or in other fields, must unite with the men who are threatened by the "governmental-industrial clique". He also advised that all Communist youth be instructed on all aspects of the present situation for, thus prepared, they will be ready to support the syndical and political campaign to be launched by the FIOM in September.
